Hungry for God

Sermon by Pastor Judge Brown

- Read John 14:6
- In the Old Testament era, there were very strict rules about who had direct access to God. Only certain priests could enter the “holy of holies,” where God’s presence dwelled. But when Jesus died on the cross, that veil tore in two so that all of us have direct access to God through Christ.
- Pastor Judge defined sin as “anything that separates us from the presence of God, from knowing who He is.” To experience true revival, we have to come to a place where we are so hungry for God we are willing to put aside the things that keep us distracted from him—to recognize that Christ alone is the way to God.

What things in your life keep you from experiencing God’s presence?
Would you give them up if you knew it would lead to more closeness with God?

- Getting into God’s presence will help you see what is getting in the way of your relationship with him. To hunger for God is to seek him without concern for what you might be called to give up.

In the past—or in the present—what has kept you from giving up those things standing in the way of your relationship with God?
