Don't Trust the Snake

Sermon by Pastor Judge Brown

- Read Genesis 3:1-6
- Eve trusted the deceptive words of the serpent in the garden instead of trusting the words of God; this misguided trust led to spiritual death and exile from paradise.

When have you believed in the lies of the enemy instead of God's truth? What happened? How might things have been different if you had trusted God instead?

- Read Psalm 91:13
- From the moment of the serpent's first deception in the garden, the enemy has striven to deceive and destroy believers, but through Christ God has given us power and authority to overcome the lies of the enemy. Pastor Judge outlined for us the steps we must take to drive out—and keep out—the serpent.

What do you do when confronted with the enemy's lies? How do you use your God-given authority to overcome?

What "snakes" are in your life right now?
