Get Out

Sermon by Pastor Zach Prosser

- Read/Review Genesis 12
- Often we let ourselves get comfortable with where we are—the routine of the everyday—instead of moving forward into what God has for us. But like Abraham, who was called to pack up and leave his native country, God often wants to call us up out of the comfortable life we're in and follow him into something greater.

Have you ever found yourself living a stagnant life? Is it easy for you to get comfortable with not moving forward?

- We cannot succeed in following God's call if we bring along our baggage, our limitations, our old issues. Abraham was called to leave the house of his father behind. Similarly, we must leave behind the controlling patterns and damaging behaviors to which we are accustomed, but which limit us. Pastor Zach said, "In order to step into your place of blessing, you've got to leave behind the limitations, the controlling thoughts, and the patterns of people you live around."

What kind of baggage and limitations are you carrying with you? What would it look like for you to leave those behind you?

What do you think God is calling you to step out into in this season?
