The Beginning of the New Testament Church (Acts 2:40-47)

- The church was full of Holy Spirit power.
 - The Holy Spirit brought power, community, and unity.

The Healing of the Lame Man (Acts 3:1-10)

- This man was lame since birth, but his mother didn't try to get rid of him (Acts 3:2).
- He had a divine intersection with Peter and John (Acts 3:6-7).
- The Pharisees probably gave to the lame man to be seen as generous.
 - God says to give in secret (Matthew 6:2-4).
- Peter ministered to the man's physical and spiritual needs (Acts 3:7).
 - He released the power of God into the man's life.
 - The woman with the issue of blood received power from Jesus (Luke 8:43-47).

Resurrection Power is in Us (Romans 8:11).

- We need to release the power of God to those around us.
 - We should release it freely (Matthew 10:8).
- Signs and wonders will follow the power of God (Romans 15:19)
- Don't hide the power that God has given you (Matthew 25:24-25)
- Be good stewards of the power of God (I Peter 4:10).
