Key Text: Galatians 5:1-6

Christ's Crucifixion Has Liberated Us (Galatians 5:1-6)

- We should refuse to go back into bondage (Galatians 5:1).
- Keeping the law (circumcision) is bondage (Galatians 5:2-3).

The Will of God for Us is that We Walk in Freedom (Romans 8:2, John 8:36, 2 Corinthians 3:17)

Freedom in Christ is Not Earned through Works (Ephesians 2:8-9)

- Freedom depends on grace, not works (Ephesians 2:8-9).
- Keeping the law is to fall away from grace and to say that Christ is not enough (Galatians 5:4).

The Grace of God is His Rescuing And Caring Exertion (1 Corinthians 15:10; Romans 5:21)

- When you justify how you live, you have pride and you cut yourself off from the grace of God.
 - Humility is a work of grace.

How to Live in Freedom

- Through the Spirit (Galatians 3:3, 5:25)
- By Faith (Galatians 2:20, 3:5, Hebrews 10:38)
- Eagerly Wait for Christ (Galatians 5:5; Romans 5:21, 8:2)
