Koinonia

Acts 2:42-47

Koinonia: Partakers, Receiving and Share, Dynamic Relationship, Not an informal meeting, active participation, communion

1. Read Acts 2:42-47 and discuss how koinonia was lived out in the early church
2. How is koinonia an active participatory partnership through receiving and giving individually and corporately?
3. The foundation of our fellowship is our shared salvation. Read and discuss 1 Corinthians 12:13.
 - a. How does our shared salvation eliminate all barriers to fellowship?
 - b. How does continual drinking of the Spirit foster koinonia?
4. The early church disciples also shared the experience of waiting and receiving the Promise of the Father (Luke 24:49).
 - a. What shared experience do we have as believers?
 - b. How does receiving the Holy Spirit give us another shared experience?
 - c. How can we share our God-experience with others?
5. We also share a common bond – the bond of the Holy Spirit’s peace (Ephesians 4:3).
 - a. How do we faithfully guard the harmony of our fellowship?
 - b. What are ways we can be good stewards of peace in our fellowship?
